

Be a city builder

Environmental Services Engineer – Regional Water Supply (RWS) (TS219)

File Number: COL00610

Service Area: Environment & Infrastructure

Division: Regional Water

Close Date: Thursday, December 9, 2021

Position Type: Permanent - Full Time

Employee Group: Management

Summary of Duties

Reporting to the Manager, Capital Programs, the Environmental Services Engineer (RWS) is responsible for contributing to the planning, development, and managing capital projects for the regional water supply system.

Qualifications/Experience

- Undergraduate university degree in Civil or Environmental Engineering.
- 5 years of experience in designing, delivering, and monitoring of programs relating to water treatment, supply, and distribution infrastructure.
- A minimum of 4 years of experience in leadership and administrative capacity. and dealing with contractors, or equivalent combination of education and related professional and lived community experience.
- Registered Professional Engineer of Ontario.

Skills and abilities in the following areas are necessary:

- Demonstrated knowledge and experience in water treatment, supply and distribution systems, and environmental protection.
- Considerable knowledge with various aspects of provincial and federal legislation relating to water treatment, supply and distribution systems, and contract management.
- Knowledge of environmental and water quality management systems.
- Demonstrated analytical and business planning skills with a proven track record for effectively implementing and monitoring programs and services.
- Demonstrated success leading or supervising employees, contracted services and consultants.

- Demonstrated ability to inspire the people they lead through productive and honest dialogue, with personal integrity and actions.
- Ability to be a trusted advisor and/or advocate in sensitive and/or emotionally charged situations.
- Demonstrated perseverance and resilience in addressing and escalating as required, challenges and emergent issues.
- Proven commitment to the safety of employees with knowledge of the Occupational Health and Safety Act and applicable regulations as it relates to the position.
- Ability to provide a high level of attention to detail, make sense of data and solve problems.
- Demonstrated effective interpersonal and customer services skills, including conflict resolution and problem solving; demonstrated ability to effectively communicate with diverse populations within the community; experience working collaboratively with organizations, clients, and other stakeholders.
- Strong verbal, written, interpersonal, communication, facilitation, and presentation skills; demonstrated political acumen.
- Ability to understand the importance of service delivery; implement initiatives that support the section's customers in a timely and effective way.
- Computer literacy in Microsoft Office, Office 365 and related software and database applications.
- Must possess a valid class 'G' driver's licence and have available use of a vehicle.

Compensation and Other Information

$92,111 to $125,069

How to Apply

For a complete job description and to apply on-line, please visit the City of London website at <https://bit.ly/3HSCiA4>

Please note following the interview stage, official transcripts as well as a criminal record check will be required prior to moving to the next stage in the selection process.

Closing Date for Applications: Thursday, December 9, 2021

We appreciate all applications, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Our hiring process is in accordance with the City of London's Mandatory Proof of COVID-19 Vaccination Administrative Policy.

As an inclusive employer, we are committed to providing a fully accessible recruitment process. Please contact us at any time during the recruitment process and let us know what accessible supports you may need.

If assistance is needed, please contact the Human Resources Division
 Phone: 519-661-4930 TTY: 519-661-4889
 Email: mycareer@london.ca

